

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WILLIAM L. MADDOCK & Co., dealers in fine groceries, No. 116 South Third Street (opposite the Girard Bank), Philadelphia.

A MATCH game of base ball will be played this afternoon, commencing at two o'clock, between the Shawance Club, of Plymouth, and the Continental Club, of this place.

The July number of Godley's Lady's Book comes to us with its usual array of interesting articles. The fashion plates and patterns are characterized by their usual excellence.

E. W. WYNKOOP and Co. will commence their next term of graded school on Third Street, July thirtieth. This school has been in operation for several years, and has proved very successful.

"Oh! what a fall there was, my countrymen!" when honorable members of Congress, bank presidents, and other honorable gentlemen, in the venting of their private spleen against Mr. Clark, descended to begging for the appointment of a Democrat for Assessor of this district! These gentlemen are seeking for the appointment of a "Copperhead!" "Let me not think on it!"

WHAT a "fearful price" the editor of the Republican offered for the retention of the Assessorship. He tendered to the President, without reserve, not only himself but his party. Was it shortsightedness in the President, or was it because he had not been accustomed to deal in such commodities, that he declined to purchase? or did some one, knowing the utter worthlessness of the goods offered, enlighten the President?

THE Model Letter-writer gave his readers, in the Republican of last week, a further specimen of his art. The effort of the second of March last demonstrated his incomparableness as a writer of private epistles. We publish in this number of our paper his public effort of last week. Our readers will be amused to see how exactly the letters of the second of March (private) and the one of July seventh (public) do not accord in tone and sentiment. Any little discrepancy between the two may be accounted for by reference to dates. On the second of March the writer was Assessor; on the seventh of July the writer was not Assessor.

THE Galaxy for July fifteenth has the following table of contents: "Arehie Lovell," by Mrs. Edwards; "With a Volume of Old Sonnets," by Richard H. Stoddard; "About the Literary Spirit," by Eugene Benson; "The Leader of the House" (Thaddeus Stevens), by J. M. Binkley; "My Courtship (with an illustration), by Anne M. Crane; "My Palaces," by William Winter; "Work and Rest," by Julius Wilcox; "Baden-Baden," by Charles Astor Bristed; "The Claverings," (with two illustrations), by Anthony Trollope; "In the Ranks at Cedar Creek," by James Franklin Pitts; "About Pizzazz," (with an illustration), by Charles Wyllys Elliott; "Strawberry Hill," by James W. Wall; "Nebula," by the Editor. The Galaxy is published fortnightly at twenty-five cents a number; five dollars for the year (twenty-four numbers); three dollars for the half year (twelve numbers). Address W. C. and F. P. Church, No. 39 Park Row, New York.

THE burned district in Portland has been surveyed, and found to cover three hundred and twenty-seven acres.

THE Fenian President Roberts has been indicted in New York for violating the neutrality laws, and bailed in five thousand dollars.

THE Canadians propose to hold United States responsible for the late Fenian raid. Wonder if they would take a check on the St. Albans Banks!

A BILL of thirty thousand dollars has been presented to Secretary Harlan for apparatus for lighting the Capitol. The cost was originally estimated at five thousand dollars.

BOILING at the Ballston oil well has now reached a fine sand-rock, at a depth of nearly six hundred and fifty feet. Last week the well overflowed with mineral water, said to be of excellent quality.

THE Montreal Gazette, recalling the fact that fourteen years ago Portland sent generous gifts to relieve sufferers by the great fire in Montreal, says: "Taught by our own misfortunes let us learn to succor the unfortunate, and the more so when we owe them a debt of gratitude." In response to this appeal handsome sums are being collected.

WE receive many complaints from our subscribers of the slowness of the mail delivery of their papers. Naturally anxious to remedy this complaint, and learning that the postmaster of this place had sent a portion of our mail matter in a different direction (as the letter we print below will show), we spoke to him of the fact, but instead of performing his duty by promising to remedy it, we were told in a very ungentlemanly manner that he did not believe our statement. The worthlessness of the object rendered it unnecessary for us to resort to more severe measures to impress upon him the importance of a Government official endeavoring to be a gentleman, even if his natural disposition would lead him the other way. We trust he will find in the subjoined letter sufficient proof of the truth of our complaint.

DEAR SIR.—In reply to your inquiry as to whether any packages or packages of the Columbian for Philadelphia had been received at this office, I answer that two packages of different issues of said paper, plainly directed to Philadelphia, were on two separate occasions received here through the mail from Bloomsburg.

Very respectfully, yours, etc., WILLIAM H. SHOEMAKER, Postmaster.

LETTER FROM HON. WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

DEAR SIR.—Excuse me for expressing surprise that you ask me whether I approve of the call of a proposed National Union Convention at Philadelphia.

After more than five years of dislocation by civil war, I regard a restoration of the unity of the country as its most vital interest. That restoration will be complete when loyal men are admitted as representatives of the loyal people of the eleven States so long unrepresented in Congress. Nothing but this can complete it. Nothing more remains to be done, and nothing more is necessary. Every day's delay is attended by multiplying and increasing inconveniences, embarrassments, and dangers, at home and abroad. Congress possesses the power exclusively; Congress, after a session of seven months, still omits to exercise that power. "What can be done to induce Congress to act?" This is the question of the day. Whatever is done must be in accordance with the Constitution and laws. It is in perfect accordance with the Constitution and laws that the people of the United States shall assemble, by delegates, in convention, and that when so assembled they shall address Congress by respectful petition and remonstrance, and that the people in their several States, Districts, and Territories shall approve, sanction, and unite in such respectful representations to Congress. No one party could do this effectually, or even seem willing to do it alone; no local or popular organization could do it effectually. It is the interest of all parties alike; of all the States, and of all the sections—a national interest; of the interest of the whole people.

The convention, indeed, may not succeed in inducing Congress to act; but if they fail, the attempt can make matters no worse. It will be lawful and patriotic attempt made in the right direction, an effort to be remembered with pride and satisfaction, whether it succeed or fail. The original Union of the States was brought about by movements of the same character. The citizen who objects to the convention is bound to propose a better plan of proceeding to effect the desired end. No other plan is offered or even thought of. Those who should oppose it would seem to me to manifest at best unconcern, if not opposition to all reconstruction, reorganization, restoration, and reconciliation between the alienated masses of the American people. To admit that the convention will fail would be to admit that the people of the United States are deficient in either the wisdom or the virtue necessary to continue the existence of the Republic. I believe in nothing. A great political writer says that government is a secular religion, and that the people of every country are divided into two classes, each maintaining a distinct political faith. The one class always fears the very worst that can possibly happen, and the other hopes under every circumstance the very best that can in any event happen.

Without accepting this theory as absolutely true, I think that all men do generally act from a motive to guard against public danger, or else from a positive desire to do good. Both classes may, therefore, favor the present attempt to restore the unity of the nation.

I am, sir, your obedient servant, WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

Hon. J. R. DOOLITTLE, Chairman Executive Committee.
